

ABSTRACT

The present invention relates to polymers comprising phenylene units, at least one of which bears a phenylene side group substituted with a perfluoro group or chain, which itself bears an $-SO_3H$, $-PO_3H_2$ or $-CO_2H$ group.

Use of this polymer to make fuel cell membranes.